Evening service, 7:30 o'clock. Subject, "Salvation; or Why Did Christ Come?"
B. Y. P. U., 6:45 p. m.
Wednesday evening, prayer meeting, 7:30 p. m.

We want all the mothers in Torrance to come to the home church next Sunday morning and hear Mr. Green. He has prepared a wonderful sermon for Mother's Day, and we want you all there to enjoy it.

MOTHER

Often and often my thoughts go back Like wanderers over a time-worn track To the time when I knelt at mother's knee And she sang her twilight song to me.

LOMITA COMMUNITY CHURCH

The church with the cross in the tower. E. E. Clark, Pastor.

Rev. and Mrs. Oje, Rev. Curais and others from the Pasadena university were present last Sunday at morning services. Rev. Oje delivered an excellent sermon, taking as his text II Tim. 4:5. In the afternoon Rev. Curtis talked on Matt. 4:19, and in the evening Rev. Elliot talked from John 17. All services were well attended.

ST. JOHN'S EPISCOPAL

Wilmington, Calif. Rev. Thos. P. Swift, Rector.
Next Sunday being Mother's Day, there will be a special service, at which time an appropriate sermon will be preached by the rector. There will be also a very attractive musical program and, as usual on this occasion, the floral decorations will be very beautiful.
All are very cordially invited to attend this service.

TIES AND BANDS OF BLUE TRIM PRINTED CHIFFON

A pretty frock of printed chiffon in blue with black figure is trimmed with tie and bands of plain blue. Most of these new frocks feature a matching scarf. The summer frocks of soft material give us more fullness in the skirt, for which all athletically inclined women will be devoutly thankful.

Odd Fellows Will Dine On Chicken

Triple City Lodge No. 333, I. O. O. F., will entertain San Pedro Encampment No. 101 at a chicken dinner next Monday night. The dinner is being given in honor of the first meeting of the encampment in the Odd Fellows' hall.

CATHOLIC

Mass will be celebrated Sunday at 9:30 a. m.
Sunday school at 10 o'clock.
